1/3/2012 20:44:22	I like 'B', but I also like that I don't have to make decisions about anything in the space. For me it's a nice refreshing place I can go and not worry about having to deal with any of the decision making that goes on in my office.	Cheap rent in beautiful workspace, Cheap rent in any workspace, Deep conversations to explore ideas and learn new perspectives, Going to lunch, Meeting new people, Learn about groups and events in Portland, A place for groups to meet, Mentoring/skill-sharing, Role models, Social experiment, Being around people doing similar work, Being around people doing a variety of work, A business incubator, A place to meet and work with clients and on projects within a company, A symbol of community in Portland, Lasers.	Currently I can't, but would if I could.		Less than monthly

Timestamp	Would you prefer that "Collective Agency" be more of a traditional capitalist model, or become even more of a cooperative?	What are your main goals for participating in "Collective Agency"? What would you like it to be? (check all that apply)	Would you likely pay to financially support here, starting this month?	If you said yes, then by the day/month/quarter/ (based on your earlier answer), how much would you likely pay?	How often do you come and work here?	What is the total income and/or revenue per year that comes to you from all sources? Per year, $:	RESULTS WILL BE POSTED SOON ON THE BLOG AT http://CollectiveAgency.co
